

Don't change our law. We have had hours of telemarket free time at home. It has been a great thing for us. What about home rule and letting each state decide what is best for themselves? Or are you Big Brother?